WHAT THE WORDS MEAN

Bullish, Bearish

The direction of our view for the day.

Key support

The level a bullish view rests on. While the price holds above it, the view stands.

Key resistance

The level a bearish view rests on. While the price stays below it, the view stands.

Target 1, Target 2

Where the move is expected to reach first, then in extension.

Scenario 1, Scenario 2

Two ways the day may go: one while the key level holds, one if it breaks. Neither is trading advice.

DISCLAIMER

In this disclaimer, "BBCorp" means BBCorp Ltd and Beirut Brokerage Corporation SAL. Read it in full before you use this report.

1 Information only, not advice

This report is general market information, provided for information and education only. It is not investment advice, a personal recommendation, or an offer or solicitation to buy or sell any financial instrument. It does not take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs, and it must not be relied on as the basis for any investment decision.

2 Scenarios are not instructions

Scenario 1, Scenario 2, key levels and targets describe ways the price may move. They are not signals, instructions or orders to open or close a position. No level is a guaranteed entry, exit, target or stop.

3 How this report is made

Levels and scenarios are derived algorithmically from historical price data and are reviewed by analysts. They reflect the market at the time shown on the cover and may change, or stop being valid, at any time without notice. BBCorp has no duty to update this report.

4 No guarantee of results

Past performance, including the results of earlier reports, is not a reliable indicator of future results. Forecasts, targets and outcomes are not guarantees, and a level reached before does not mean it will be reached again.

5 Prices, charts and data

Prices and charts in this report are indicative and may lag the market. They do not represent the live trading environment: the prices you trade at are those in MetaTrader 5 when your order is executed. Event times and forecasts come from Forex Factory and can be moved, cancelled or revised. News summaries are prepared by BBCorp with the help of artificial intelligence from the sources they name, and may leave out detail or contain errors.

6 Risk

Forex and Contracts for Difference (CFDs), including CFDs on cryptocurrencies, are leveraged products that carry a high level of risk and may result in losses exceeding your initial deposit. They may not be suitable for all investors. Do not trade with money you cannot afford to lose, and read the Risk disclosure in the BBCorp App before you trade.

7 Your decision

Any decision to trade is yours alone and is made at your own risk. Seek independent financial advice before you trade if you are unsure whether a product is right for you.

8 Liability
